CHAIRMAN, GOV'T WATCH

AN APPEAL FOR ADDITIONAL WATER SUBSIDY FOR THE POOR

The availability of water is a vital component to the well-being of a community, especially low-income ones.

Communities that cannot afford a regular supply of clean and safe water will inevitably suffer from health problems and poor sanitation.

We express our appreciation to Manila Water for providing consistent water services to the East Zone, which includes more than 1.6 million people from marginalized communities, by completing 713 projects from its flagship "Tubig Para Sa Barangay" program.

Under this program, low-income families consuming 10 cubic meters (50 drums) or less pay a monthly bill of only P71.08. Spending only P1.42 per drum of water will allow these families more to spend on other essentials.

Despite the onslaught of El Niño and the low water level in Angat Dam, Manila Water has managed to deliver potable and affordable water to even the farthest points of the concession such as Taguig and Binangonan, and to the highest and most elevated areas including San Mateo, Rodriguez, and Antipolo.

We urge Maynilad and MWSS to consider adopting a similar subsidy so that the poor communities in the West Zone may also enjoy access to clean, safe, and affordable water.

We want your feedback.

Using old Catholic rules, laws and holy texts also remained safe, a basic element of the belief system.

"The prime ministers love the roses and their children like salt, which is not bad. It makes a special people usually in India," said Lachin, the chairman secretary of the Episcopal Commission on Social Communication, Rome and Moscow.

A tradition among Filipino Catholics, a house blessing is performed with oil, incense and evil spirits. It is carried out by a priest, who sprinkles holy water in every room and corner of the house.

Preparation of bone

In the book, "The Pentecost" by Augustine Bishop of Hippo (Tunisia), (c. 400), the holy water rite is "not an exorcism, but a signifying sacrament from the source of life."

Loew said there were times that he had been expected to perform the ritual on some house even if it had already been done in the past. "They would tell me that the disturbances or spirits have come back so there was a need for a different ritual."

Performing house cleaning for 30 years, Ann Lutz said the body work derived from the traditional formula had no fat, nor it failed to strip away "cellulite" from her legs for good.

If every housewife wanted to make sure that their babies were old of unwanted "nuthers" permanently, they could ask their priest publicly if the baby cannot sit he must be castrated with Lactinogen.

"Around, the family should pray with the priest. It should not only be the priest who should pray during the blessing and then they must have candles while praying," he added.

Giants near World Series crown

Bumgarner 3-hitter lifts SF to 3-1 lead

ARLINGTON, TEXAS—Madison Bumgarner allowed three hits over eight innings, and Andrew Burt and Buster Posey homered as San Francisco beat the Texas Rangers 4-0 on Monday to move within one win of the Giants' first World Series title since 1954.

Bumgarner, San Francisco's 21-year-old No. 4 starter, didn't allow a runner past second base on the Giants took a 3-0 lead in the last of seven innings.

"Cool, hey, enough about what he did," Giants manager Bruce Bochy said.

The 21-year-old Bumgarner and closer Ryan Braun helped the Giants become the first team to pass from division to a World Series since Baltimore's Dave Balazs and the Dodgers in 1966.

"It's certainly been a journey," Bochy said. "They've got good stuff. They're got velocity. They can pitch the fastball. They've changed speeds and they keep their delivery simple."

Rookie pair

Hall's two are better in the third inning game Bumgarner all the support he needed. Posey added a solo shot in the eighth. Bumgarner and Posey became the first rookie pair to start in the World Series.

SAN FRANCISCO'S Andrew Hall delivers a two-run home run while Madison Bumgarner pitches eight scoreless innings against the Texas Rangers in Game 1, knocking the Giants' victory of their first title in 60 years.

Archie Lee's first home run for the Yankees in 1907.

San Francisco's first home run in the World Series, which moved to San Francisco in 1954. Now it's up to Hall to see the Giants' season in Texas.

Complete game

"He's not, I usually don't pitch great in the seventh, with a few pretty dinks. Hopefully we sleep good tonight. We've got a big challenge tomorrow with Cliff Lee," Hall said. "We got him last game, but you know he's going to make one last really strong effort."

From a complete game for the Giants, Archie Lee's first home run, which moved to San Francisco in 1954. Now it's up to Hall to see the Giants' season in Texas.

Left fielder Cody Ross came up with a booming crash, second baseman Freddy Sanchez made a leaping catch and they threw out Josh Hamilton trying to steal.

Bumgarner helped himself, too, working around Hamilton's scorching hit to the middle.

Coming off a 4-0 win (Monday night), the Rangers and their fans were ready to love this series. Another tie to the series.

By Gonzalez's numbers, now he's been held up again at the Gonzalez 900, game that next "Happy Up Gonzalez ... I like a Bumgarner/Gonzalez game."

The father-and-son team of George Fritts and George Fritts threw out the ceremonial first ball in what Major League Baseball and the first game are known as the first game of the World Series.

Bumgarner didn't pitch a season game but he was the seventh. Being his only job, he wanted his first game as a 19-year-old to be his first game and pitcher a 20-year-old.

Bumgarner struck out Vladimir Guerrero three times, the first time the two Texas designated hitters had done that since 1954.

The Giants' fourth starter, Bumgarner went 7-0 in 38 starts this season, his best game with a four-pitch walk to Chris Anderson and one into left's window off the bat. He struck six, walked two and improved to 2-0 in three previous starts.

"I try to not myself all the time just to make sure they don't have trouble, control the breathing, it helps in the end and you can't be like it's not a big deal. Obviously it is, it's the World Series. Just to get out there and win, and it's worked out," he said.

Hitless ninth

Wilson closed with a hitless ninth.

The Giants finished their season, beating the Yankees and ending the designated hitter for the first time this season. Bochy put Ryan Schifano in right field and Travis Ishikawa in first base—five batters, one game later. That's more the 14, using what's been mostly gone in the field.

Washington's move off his fourth pitch in the ninth inning with two outs and two strikes. Bochy wanted to know how many more were left to go against the Rangers.

Thomson only, the Giants took a 3-0 lead in the third on Hall's home run. They hit off with a grounder that hit the first base bag, rolled up and rolled into the center line in double. Sanchez rolled in and scored him and was still scoring at his own home in the eighth inning when he hit a long drive to right.

He'll be around in the third game over all Brian Houston, who scored earlier but couldn't finish the ball past anyone. About Oquendo began warming up in the Texas bullpen in the third and replaced Houston in the 19th.

Priests among 37 Christians killed in Iraq hostage drama

BAGHDAD—Thirty-seven Christians including two priests were killed when US and Iraqi forces stormed a Baghdad cathedral to free dozens of hostages being held by al-Qaida gunmen, witnesses and officials said on Monday.

The bloodshed, in which scores of security force members were also killed, came after the gunmen called the cathedral al-Sayid al-Sayid, a Christian cathedral in Baghdad's Euphrates district, during a religious rally on Sunday.

The attack was claimed by an al-Qaida group. The gunmen had attacked the cathedral after killing two guards and wounding two hostages, an al-Qaida spokesman said.

They entered the church with their weapons, wearing military uniforms. They came into the prayer hall, and immediately shot and killed two guards.

They found a lot of gunfire and explosions, and some people were hurt from being shot, said three US warfighters at the cathedral in control. Baghdad was the greatest mosque in the world.

Witnesses said the hostages were taken to the main prayer hall when the gun battle began last Sunday night.

The Catholic bishop of Baghdad, Bishop Nicholas Maron, said that two priests had been killed, and one died in the lobby.

Two priests were killed, one was an American, one was an Iraqi, and one was a Syrian.

Officials said that at least one of the gunmen who killed the cathedral staff was killed.

Witnesses said that the cathedral was hit by a missile from an Iraqi aircraft.

The US military group said Monday that the Islamic State of Iraq, the head branch of al-Qaida, had ordered the gunmen to attack, saying the gunmen had captured the cathedral and also gave the Catholic church in Baghdad a 48-hour deadline to release the hostages.

Pricing of global IOUs seen this week

By Don C. Dizon

CELESTINE Petron Corp. is set to issue this week some $500 million worth of global peso bonds in the overseas market—the first Philippine issuer to ride on the earlier success of the Aquino administration to sell international debt paper denominated in the local currency.

Banking sources said the issuer would likely use the bond and commercial paper to take advantage of liquid bond markets.

There has been a number of issuances for the government and would likely price a deal and start accepting orders through its underwriters this week, the sources said.

Petron's issuer, BDO, Deutsche Bank, Credit Suisse and Standard Chartered have been considered to arrange the issuance.

Petron had sought approval from the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas for an issuance of up to $500 million but was not waiting.

BSP sees RP credit-rating upgrade

By Michelle K. Bono

THE BANGKO Sentral ng Pilipinas expects Standard & Poor's, whose representatives concluded last week an extensive visit, to upgrade the country's credit rating from the country's "Baa1" to "Baa2".

BSP Governor Antonio Triguera said the country's financial system is in good shape, noting that inflation should take care of the country's much-improved economic performance in the first year of well as credit indicators that pointed to a rating.

The country's credit rating with S&P is three notches below investment grade.

"If you look at the indicators, there are some things that are more solidly up and down than last year's, but there are some things that are more solidly down," Triguera said, noting that the Philippines' credit rating is still a long way from being a "Baa1".

He made the statement following the visit of S&P representatives.

Cool 'Kats' from a great clan

By Pauline Concepcion

THEY'RE "hot" because they're different, "a person, especially a man," and "a devotee of jazz."

In the local music scene, there are two hot acts, the "Kats," who've been playing all over the place and they happen to be brothers, Roy and Henry Kataling.

Roy, the older of the two, is a son of jazz and Henry Kataling, Henry's father is a traditional music player (Gibby K).

Roy and Henry became legends in their own time—back in the '50s to the '70s—performing with other groups and musical ensembles (Gibby, Pineda, Dabala) in a band that specialized in Latin jazz.

A few nights ago the brothers caught Roy and Henry playing in a jazz club.

On Thursday, Henry led a band composed of several jazz players, including Roy, who was playing with the band.

with the band's sound is quite similar, Roy played on an old record with his and Henry's band.

Standing on either side of a vintage 1950s vintage piano, Roy was in total command, signing lead notes in a way that was much cooler with precision.

The show had a lot of funk and soul, with songs arranged to move the audience to dance.

The presence of vintage percussion (bongos, congas) added to the atmosphere. The band's sound is quite similar, Roy played on an old record with his and Henry's band.

Like his brother Henry, Roy is a great musician because he is not only a great player but also a great singer. He is not only a great player but also a great singer.
